Week of September 5, 2016

New School Year: Welcome to the 2016-17 school year! All of us at Trinity hope you're looking forward to it as much as we are!

Opening Service: An opening church service is scheduled for the first day of school at 8:30 am. All families are welcome to attend with us. What a wonderful way to start the year!

Picture Day: Order forms for Picture Day will be sent home with all students soon and should be returned by Wed., Sept. 21.

Jupiter Grades: Log-in information will be sent to new families in Grades 1 – 8 during the first week of school.

School Buses: During the first week of school, older students are paired up with younger students to make sure they get on the correct bus for the ride home.

Back-to-School BBQ: All students and their families are invited to our Back-to-School BBQ on Friday evening, September 8, beginning at 5:30 pm, at Trinity. This annual event is sponsored by the Board of School Elders and PTO. More information will follow. Hope to see you there!

Labels for Learning! Thanks for collecting your Coborn's "Labels for Learning" certificates. We received a check in the amount of $333.00 from Coborn's!

Mission Collection from last week: [The first semester mission collection will be for the WELS Mission to Puerto Rico.]
